PRESS RELEASE

Hôtel Crillon le Brave, a five-star haven of peace from the Maisons Pariente collection, reopens its doors for a new season, offering guests a unique experience that blends Provençal authenticity, discreet luxury, and moments of absolute well-being.

From 11th April 2025, the hotel invites guests to embark on a getaway in the heart of Provence, a magical location between Mont Ventoux and the Dentelles de Montmirail, where serenity, gastronomy, and relaxation come together to create unforgettable memories.

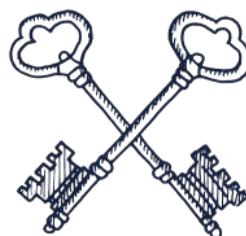

AN IDYLLIC AND REFINED SETTING

Nestled among 17th- and 18th-century buildings, the architecture of the village hotel harmoniously blends into the landscape.

The 34 rooms and suites, designed by architect and decorator Charles Zana, offer an elegant setting. The contrast of Provence's hues, antique terracotta tiles, and linen creates a poetic touch, creating a soothing atmosphere perfect for relaxation. Guests can enjoy breathtaking views of the valley, scattered with olive groves and vineyards, all day long.

A NEW GASTRONOMIC VEGAN EXPERIENCE

At La Table du Ventoux, Chef Thomas Lesage elevates local produce with an environmentally conscious approach, offering a refined, bold vegan menu suited to all dietary preferences. This brand-new menu, at €68 per person, includes a starter of leeks, sage vinaigrette, wild Ventoux herbs and roasted pistachios, followed by a main course of baby carrots with Camargue black rice, pink grapefruit and Provençal pistou. For dessert, there is Carpentras strawberry caviar served with oat shortbread, rhubarb and lovage.

Alongside this creative vegan menu, the restaurant's à la carte menu presents Provençal cuisine classics reimagined with creativity and technical mastery, featuring dishes such as Sisteron lamb, Mazan asparagus, Sault spelt, and Rove brousse cheese.
