COMMUNIQUÉ DE PRESSE

In the heart of Paris's Le Marais district, Le Grand Mazarin transforms after dark. Once the sun sets, the hotel takes on a different character: intimate, vibrant, and quietly magnetic. Each space offers its own kind of escape.

minuit

Tucked underground, Le Petit Bazar–Le Grand Mazarin's speakeasy– begins a new act. In collaboration with Minuit le Média, the intimate venue long known as a discreet after-hours haunt is being reimagined as an open, living stage for contemporary creation: a true artistic laboratory where music, performance, and emerging talent share the spotlight. The collaboration grew out of a natural connection between Le Grand Mazarin and Minuit le Média, sparked by a series of interviews recorded inside Le Petit Bazar itself. Known for sharp cultural commentary, personality-driven features, and a deep tie to Parisian nightlife, the French podcast quickly emerged as the right partner; and from that first exchange came a shared ambition to open a true artistic stage within the venue. The initiative also reflects Maisons Pariente's broader commitment to championing contemporary creation and giving a platform to young artists.

PARIS LE MARAIS

Starting in May, Minuit le Média curates a program designed as an invitation to discover the city's artistic scene from a different angle, in an atmosphere true to the venue's DNA: confidential, sensory, and unmistakably Parisian.

The first summer dates build in intensity, moving from word to rhythm and from the intimate to the collective:

May 28

Anna Toumazoff opens the series with a reading and unfiltered conversation

June 17

Carole Fe & Reuss DJ bring a vibrant energy with a finely crafted DJ set

July 3

Verlo closes out the season with a showcase set to leave a lasting impression

Camélia Jordana

Alongside the regular program, Le Grand Mazarin will host a special off-calendar event: French singer-songwriter Camélia Jordana will premiere a self-produced showcase at Le Petit Bazar, marking the launch of her upcoming tour. Designed as an intimate encounter between the artist and her audience, the performance unfolds in the speakeasy's enveloping setting, a rare moment not to be missed.

Two shows per day, May 24-27 and June 28-July 1, with tickets available at this link: Eventbrite.

ABOUT

LE GRAND MAZARIN

Le Grand Mazarin is a five-star urban hotel set in the heart of Le Marais, just steps from the iconic Parisian city hall. Located at the corner of Rue de la Verrerie and Rue des Archives, the hotel serves as an art enclave, conveniently close to some of the best art galleries in the city. It features 47 rooms and 14 suites, the restaurant Boubalé, Boubalé Bar, the underground speakeasy Le Petit Bazar, and a wellness offering that includes a heated indoor pool, treatment room, hammam, and fitness studio.

MAISONS PARIENTE

Maisons Pariente is a collection of iconic five-star properties, founded by Patrick Pariente and his two daughters, Leslie Kouhana and Kimberley Cohen. Set in exceptional destinations, each address is conceived as a private retreat, with a meticulous attention to detail and gesture creating memories that settle in gently and endure over time. Each hotel reveals its own distinct personality, in harmony with its surroundings. Each property has its own light, rhythm, and language. What unites them all, however, is a shared family spirit.

Today, the collection brings together four properties: Crillon le Brave in Provence, Lou Pinet in Saint-Tropez, Le Coucou Méribel in Méribel, and Le Grand Mazarin in Paris. In December 2026, Maisons Pariente will unveil its newest address, Hôtel Saint-Roch in Courchevel 1850.
